

Take a look at some of the amazing jobs right here in Greater Lincolnshire!

Agri-Food

Responsible for growing 12% of England's food and processing 70% of its fish, growth in the agri-food sector in Greater Lincolnshire is important not only locally, but for the whole of the UK. The agri-food sector employs over 75,000 workers in wide range of businesses.

Agricultural Engineer (Tong Engineering)

Agricultural engineers design and build agricultural, horticultural and forestry machinery and equipment. Take a look at this video which shows what this engineer has created:

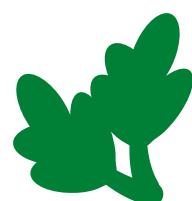

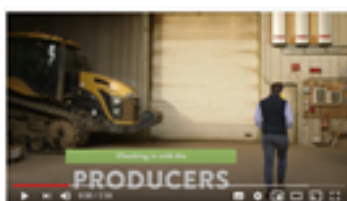

Horticulture

Within the agri-food sector, horticulture and potatoes are particularly significant for Lincolnshire, representing 32% of total agricultural output – that's double the UK level! There's lots of information about jobs in Horticulture on the Grow Careers website.

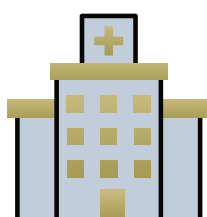

Trainee in Innovation (Produce World)

Working in Innovation within Horticulture means working with a number of different stakeholders: from farmers and producers; all the way through the production lines, to big retailers and supermarkets. Find out more by watching the video below:

Health

With the number of 75-year olds in the county increasing by 19% in the last decade, it is vital that Greater Lincolnshire grows the Health and Care sector.

Nurse (County Wide)

Nurses are one of the Key Worker groups that provide vital work in our communities. They can become specialists in many different areas of nursing, and responsible for whole departments, in large or small hospitals or practices. Hear from a local senior nursing lecturer at the University of Lincoln about why he loves being a nurse, and the shortage of male nurses:

Tourism (Visitor Economy)

The Visitor Economy covers a whole range of businesses and skills. Last year, we welcomed more than 34 million visitors to Greater Lincolnshire's world class visitor attractions.

Head of Marketing (Fantasy Island)

The Head of Marketing is responsible for providing leadership, strategic vision and management of the marketing and communications of a company. You will need excellent communication skills and experience of working in a Marketing role.

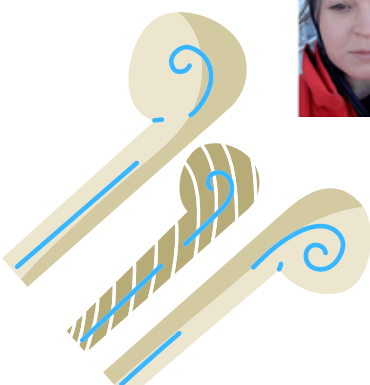

Green Jobs

Greater Lincolnshire is at the forefront of the Green Economy, boasting over 150 employers. This is expected to increase in the future.

Wind Turbine Maintenance Technician (Ørsted)

A Maintenance Technician fixes Wind Turbines out at sea. They will troubleshoot any problems on the Turbines, and have a range of skills and technical abilities, from electrical engineering to mechanics. Find out more about this role and Georgia's story by clicking on the image below.

Digital Technology

The digital sector in Greater Lincolnshire is currently estimated to be worth £779million. The amazing thing about the technology industry is that roles can be found in other sectors; agri-food, health and care, low carbon, ports and logistics, visitor economy. All businesses need workers with digital tech skills.

Digital Marketing Apprentice (Don Amott Parks)

Digital Marketers use a wide range of skills including video editing, photo production and design. You may also build websites and use advanced data analysis skills. Find out more by clicking on the video below.

